Dewatering Site Operative

Stuart Wells is a leading and experienced specialist groundwater engineering company undertaking groundwater control, borehole testing services and ground freezing, predominantly within the UK civil engineering industry.

We are looking to recruit a site operative to install, maintain, and operate dewatering systems on civil engineering sites. This is a full-time, permanent position, working for principal contractors throughout the UK, and will involve working away from home. Knowledge of dewatering or pumps, together with any related experience, such as temporary works would be of major benefit to this role, but not crucial as full on the job training will be provided.

This position involves outside work on construction sites at various locations across the UK, therefore a CSCS card and UK driving licence are both prerequisites for the position. A good work ethic, ability to work as part of a team and desire to learn and improve your skill set are essential.

Roles & Responsibilities (not limited to)

- Install, commission and maintain dewatering systems on sites throughout the UK
- Dismantle and decommission dewatering systems
- Assist with pumping tests
- Complete and submit daily site reports
- Record keeping
- Comply with Health and Safety documents, such as site specific RAMS & permits
- Client liaison and maintaining good working relationship with all parties
- Attend inductions, briefings and toolbox talks

Skills & Experience

- Full, clean UK driving licence - essential
- CSCS card - essential
- Knowledge of dewatering or pumps - favoured but not essential
- Experience of working on construction site - favoured but not essential

Working Hours

- Office: 08:00 to 17:00; Site (varies) 7:30 to 17:30
- Full time, Permanent

Location

Predominantly UK projects/ site based with periods at Head Office Shropham, Norfolk.

Benefits

- Company van
- Company pension scheme (after qualifying period)
- 23 days annual leave (plus statutory bank holidays)

CV should be sent to matt.rosson@stuartwells.co.uk outlining the qualities and attributes you feel you can bring to the position.
